BREACH OF FAITH

Abhinav Publications, New Delhi. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. 207pp. Romen Basu one of India's significant novelists and poets has once again written in his latest novel "Breach of Faith about the neglect of and injustice towards, the poor street children of India. Like his previous crusading novels, he has written about children-victims of class and caste-who have been driven to seek shelter in cardboard boxes on the streets or on platforms in railway stations. The story revolves around...
