Like Going Home: The Quartet (Paperback)

By William Mudon

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Like Going Home is an epic novel about coming of age in the turbulent 1960s, by one of the greatest undiscovered writers of that era, William Francis (Wild Bill) Mudon of South Dakota and Denver. It was his first major work and has never before been published. Properly speaking, Like Going Home is a quartet of novellas, each published separately as a series of e-books and collected here for the complete printed edition. The first, The Summer of Ballads (1966), set in rural South Dakota, is a searing look at ranching and small town life as frontier values collide with the antiwar movement and the determination of one of Pierre s best and brightest sons, Zeno, to become a conscientious objector. Based on his own experiences growing up on the prairie, Mudon s characters are sharply drawn, deeply felt, and so vividly described that you can just taste that dusty wind blowing in Zeno s face, as one reader put it. The second, The Summer of Songs of Peace and Love (1967), follows Zeno on his...
