Here, Noddy Newman! you haven t washed out the boat-house yet, said Ben, the boatman, as the young gentleman thus addressed was ambling down towards the river. Hang the boat-house! exclaimed Noddy, impatiently, as he stopped short in his walk, and seemed to be in doubt whether he should return or continue on his way. You know what Miss Bertha says-don t you? Yes, I know what she says, added Noddy, rubbing his head, as though he were trying to reconcile his present purpose, whatever it was, with the loyalty he owed to Bertha. I suppose it don t make much difference to her whether I wash out the boat-house now or by and by. I don t know anything about that, my boy, said the old man. Miss Bertha told me to find some regular work for you to do every day. I found it, and she say you must wash out the boat-house every morning before nine o clock. If you don t do it, I shall report you to her. That s all I ve got to say about it. I calculate to wash out the boat-house.
